HELPING YOU UNLOCK YOUR FULL POTENTIAL

Your industry continues to face its share of challenges — from narrow margins and management struggles to dealing with manufacturers' expectations and a constantly shifting marketplace.

As business advisors to hundreds of dealerships across Canada, MNP recognizes your specific demands and opportunities and unique needs, whether you're a single-store operator or a multi-store dealer.

Focusing on What Matters to You

Your livelihood is dependent on the performance of your business. Every business decision you make impacts you personally as much as it does your dealership.

That's why you need a trusted advisor who truly gets your business and the personal stake you have in its success. Like you, we understand the importance of meeting clients' needs and how relationships influence your decision making.

Industry Knowledge and Insight

Through participating in key industry associations and building strong relationships, our team is aware of the complex issues affecting your sector — from increased competition to changing consumer demands and shopping habits.

Your success requires a personalized approach that considers your whole business, identifies opportunities and delivers tailored strategies to meet your unique needs.

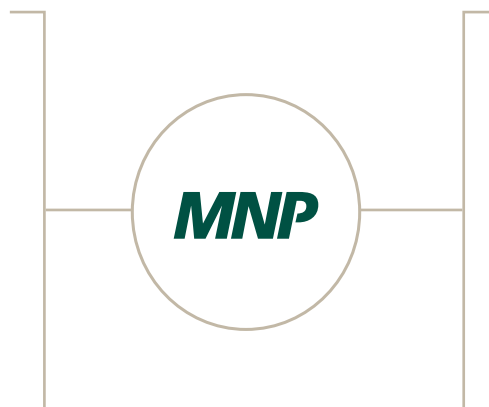

Specialized Advisory Services for the Automotive Industry

We believe in building and nurturing ongoing relationships with our clients at the local level. However, as one of the largest accounting, tax and business consulting firms in Canada, our local team members also work closely with specialists across the country to ensure we get the right answer for you, every time.
